The property moved between May 1 and July 1 shall be assessed, either in the town in which it is first called upon by the assessor, or in the town or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear that the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in this town or district is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.42. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be determined from the facts, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.43. List of certain personal property. The assessor shall make a list of the following personal property, to-wit: (a) all real property and all personal property owned by the decedent or testator at the time of his death; (b) all personal property owned by the decedent or testator at the time of his death; (c) all personal property owned by the decedent or testator at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.44. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be required to examine any person, or the personal property of any person, for the purpose of determining its value for the purpose of being assessed, or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit therefrom, he shall be sworn by the assessor, and shall make a true and correct statement of the value of such property, and shall be liable to the same extent as if he were a witness.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a person under guardianship shall be listed and assessed in the ward residence, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place for listing before the appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The property moved between May 1 and July 1 shall be assessed, either in the town in which it is first called upon by the assessor, or in the town or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear that the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in this town or district is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of certain personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount as he believes to be the true value thereof, and shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.49. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required by law to be made for the purpose of determining the value of any real or personal property, or for any other purpose, or for any other matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.50. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax shall be classified for purposes of taxation as follows: (a) real property shall be classified for purposes of taxation as follows: (1) Class 1, All direct products of the soil, and open earth, furrows, and iron ore, and all direct products of the soil and open earth, furrows, and iron ore, and all direct products of the soil and open earth, furrows, and iron ore, and all direct products of the soil and open earth, furrows, and iron ore.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel, and other personal property, except such as is otherwise provided for in this section. (b) personal property shall be classified for purposes of taxation as follows: (1) Class 3, All agricultural products, except as provided in this section, and all direct products of the soil and open earth, furrows, and iron ore, and all direct products of the soil and open earth, furrows, and iron ore.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes, shall constitute class four, and shall be valued and assessed at forty per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 5. Live stock, poultry, all horses, mules, and all other animals, and all personal property, except as provided in this section, and all direct products of the soil and open earth, furrows, and iron ore, and all direct products of the soil and open earth, furrows, and iron ore.

Class 6. All property not included in the preceding classes, shall constitute class six, and shall be valued and assessed at forty per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meetings, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1950 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
