DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

1942.

CASS County, Minn.,

A. L. Aude Assessor of the Town of Sylvan According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town of Sylvan for the year 1942, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book. J. L. Johnson County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if, acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following: 1. Full age and normal mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his * * * personal property.

Sec. 2004. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, the personal property of a person shall be listed in the town or district where the owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 2008. Estates of non-residents. When the owner of real or personal property in this state does not reside therein, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the property is situated in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in this state shall be listed and assessed where the property is located and assessed by the Department of Taxation in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another county, town, or district, shall be liable for taxation in this state from the date of removal. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned in this state on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which the same shall be situated. If the assessor of the county, town, or district in which the property is situated is unable to locate the property, he shall advise the assessor of the county, town, or district in which the property is situated in another state.

Section 1986. Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book.

The county auditor, on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state, each assessor attending such meetings shall receive a compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

Sec. 2019. When listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the value of any property, the assessor may, at his option, list the same at the rate provided, if between places in the same township, or places in different counties, by the Department of Taxation * * *.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon or before the first day of May, a list of the real and personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession, custody or control, which is not subject to taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, executor, trustee, or administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall have any reason to believe that the person listing property for taxation is not making a true and correct statement, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to make a personal examination may, in order to use, and while so using, the premises, buildings, structures, and contents thereof, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10206. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax, or in making any return, which is required or authorized by any material which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How Classified. All real and personal property subject to a general assessment shall be classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. From ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the full value thereof. The real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid, from ore which either (a) is mined by underground methods and placed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1, 1927, or (b) is mined by open-pit methods, and in which the full value of the contents of the stockpiles in excess of 150 per cent, dried analysis, or which is classified by the iron ore trade as silicon, manganese, or open pit methods, and in accordance with good engineering and metallurgical practice, requires concentration other than crushing or screening, shall constitute Class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class three "a," and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural machinery, except as provided in subdivision 5, shall constitute Class three "b," and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class three "a," and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 6. Class 3b. All agricultural machinery, except as provided in subdivision 5, shall constitute Class three "b," and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 7. Class 4. All personal property, including in the second class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Sylvan, Cass
