Ralph J. Felton

Assessor of the

Lawson

IN THE COUNTY AFORESAID:

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the said Town for the year 1931, containing a list of all lands and town lots subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

W. H. Galen

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws, Relating to the Listing of Personal Property

(Section Numbers refer to General Statutes 1923.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation. All real and personal property owned by any person or corporation in this county and all personal property of persons residing therein  is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984.  Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it. Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following: 1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his real estate, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property. 2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other assets which he has received or is to receive, and which are controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person company or corporation. 3. The property of a minor child or infant person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge. 4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust by the trustee, executor or administrator. 5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver. 6. The property of a body politic or corporation, by the proper agent or officer thereof. 7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof. 8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides. Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or manufacturer shall be listed in the county, town, or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the district funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, and shall not be removed until the taxes are paid in full. Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the legal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1925—Household Goods. All household goods and furniture including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipping of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept. Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company controlled by or in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages shall be listed and assessed where situated with respect to regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located. Chap. 306. Laws 1925. Personal Property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a rated status outside of cities and villages shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated. Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death. Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides. Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property of assignees and receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment. Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1 shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between May 1 and May 1 of such year, in the county, town or district in which he resides unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, the assessor shall list and assess the same as determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby. Sec. 2002. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of the personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accountant, officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of a corporation or partnership in which he is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state. Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation ration, has not made a full, fair, and complete return, or if he has failed to list any such personal property, in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information. Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed. Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein. Sec. 10396. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. Dear Sir:-

In your 1931 assessment book, I note you have a building listed on NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 1, in the name of Richard Whitman. On our records the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 1 is in the name of Violet Houskins. Is this the correct description for the Whitman building?

Thanking you for an early reply, I am

Yours very truly,

A. A. Cater

County Auditor.
