Sec. 1985. Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blank books at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with such assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the nature of the property included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the first Monday in APRIL of each year.

Sec. 2027. The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minutes in Tax Committees for the purpose of determining the value of property to be assessed and making up the assessment book. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such services the sum of fifty cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
