

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSORS.

Office of County Auditor,

Cass County, Miss. April 22<sup>d</sup> 1874

To J. M. Nichols Assessor of the Second Assessment District of _____ in the County aforesaid:

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Personal Property Assessment Book for the year 1874, for the said Second District at Cass County and I hereby direct you to assess the same and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of return to be signed by you may be found at the end of this book.

Robert C. Stauff
County Auditor.

Extracts from the General Tax Law relating to the Duties of Assessors in the Assessment of Personal Property.

SECTION 4. Personal property shall, for the purpose of taxation, be construed to include all goods, chattels, monies, credits and effects, whatsoever they may be, all ships, boats and vessels belonging to inhabitants of this State, whether at home or abroad, and all capital invested therein; all income at interest, either within or without this State, due the person to be taxed more than he pays interest for, and all other debts due such person more than their indebtedness; all public stocks and securities, all stock in foreign, national, banks, and other corporations (except national banks) out of this State, owned by inhabitants of this State; all personal estate of deceased corporations, whether the same be real estate in or out of this State, and the income of any annuity, unless the capital of such annuity be held within the State; all shares of stock in any bank organized, or that may be organized under any law of the United States; and all improvements made by persons upon lands held by them under the homestead laws of the United States, the use of which lands is still vested in the United States, and of such improvements upon lands the title to which is still vested in the State of Mississippi, or in any other country, or any other corporation whose property is not subject to the same laws and rules of taxation as other property.

Sec. 5. The term "money" or "debt," wherever used in this act, shall be held to mean gold and silver coin and bank notes, and every deposit, which may accrue owing the same, or banking in trust, and nothing in this sense, is called to withdraw in money on demand. The term "credit," wherever used in this act, shall be held to mean and include every claim or demand for money or other valuable thing, due or to become due, and all claims and demands received by bond or mortgage, due or to become due. The terms "land" or "lot," and "place" or "parcel of real property," and "piece of good land," wherever used in this act, shall each be held to mean any contiguous quantity of land in the possession of, owned by, or conveyed to the property of the same individual, person or company. Every word importing the singular number only, may extend to and embrace the plural number, and every word importing the plural number may be applied and limited to the singular number, and every word importing the masculine gender only, may be extended and applied to females as well as males. Whenever the word "with" is used in this act, it shall be held to mean adjoining; and the word "among," in this act, may be held to mean after. The words "town or district," wherever used in this act, shall be construed to mean township, village, city, or ward, as the case may be. The term "true and full value," wherever used in this act, shall be held to mean the usual selling price of the place where the property to which the term is applied shall be at the time of assessment, being the price which could be obtained therefor at private sale, and not at forced or auction sale. The term "person," wherever used in this act, shall be construed to include firm, company, or copartners.

[Personal Property exempt from taxation. See section 4 of the Revised Tax Law.]

Nothing shall public libraries, and real and personal property belonging to or connected with the same.

Such of the personal property of such individual lands is assessed and taxable under the provisions of this act, of which each individual in the actual and bona-fide owner, in an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars in value, provided that such person shall list all of his personal property for taxation, and the county auditor shall deduct the amount of the exemption authorized by this section from the total amount of his assessment, and levy taxes upon the remainder.

Sec. 10. Whenever the assessor shall be of opinion that the person having property for himself or for any other person, company or corporation, has not made a full, fair and complete list of such property, he may examine such person under oath, in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and if such person shall refuse to answer under oath, and a full discovery make, the assessor may list the property of such person, or his principal, according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 11. Whenever some or has in his possession or subject to his control, any goods, merchandise, produce, or other personal property within this State, with authority to sell the same, which has been
