property in the district, but for their value such taxes as set by itself, and in such case as given as to be before the same to be held forth with the same as the time such assessment is made.

Sec. 14.—In valuing any real property upon which there is a real or other estate or other or other party, the same shall be valued at such a price as such party or parties, including the heirs or assigns, would sell at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Sec. 15.—Taxable fractional interests shall be valued at such a price as they would bring at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Sec. 16.—The assessor shall, in all cases, draw the best evidence of information within his reach, and according to the same procedure in this act for valuing real property, ascertain said assessments, as near as practicable, the true value of each separate tract of land appearing in the assessment book furnished him by the county auditor, and he shall set thereon separate such tract of land in each assessment book, the true value thereof as ascertained and determined, and to what such property, the value of all houses, wells and other buildings which covered any fractional interests in value on any such tract of land other than town lots, which shall be carried out as a part of the value of such tract, and he shall also enter in his assessment book the number of acres of such or given land, and the number of acres of wood and marshy land, as near as may be.

Sec. 17.—If the assessor discovers any real property subject to taxation, which has not been listed to him by the county auditor, he shall list and assess such property.

Sec. 18.—The assessor shall, at the time of taking a list of personal property, also take a list of all real property situated in his territory that has become subject to taxation since the last previous listing of property therein, with the value therein estimated appearing in the same previous listing by this act, and of all new buildings or other structures of any kind of every acre bounded therein in value, the value of which has not been previously added to any list made by him, together of the land on which such structures have been erected, and shall make return to the county auditor thereof, at the same time and in the manner before he, to make his return of personal property, to be supported by this act, to make his return of personal property, in which return he shall state the tract or lot of real property on which each of such structures has been erected, the kind of structure so erected, and the true value added to such parcel of real property by the building thereof, and the additional value which it is believed by the land on which the structure is erected would add to its value in comparison thereto, shall be equal to the value of such new structure, and in case of the destruction of any house, or otherwise, or any building or structure of any kind, upon any bounded estate or other, which has been erected previous to the last valuation of the land on which the same stood, at the value of which has been added to the true value of such land, the assessor shall determine the same as best as practicable, how such loss such land would add to its value in comparison to the value of such destruction, and make return thereof to the county auditor as in this act provided.

Sec. 19.—For the purpose of making the assessor to determine the value of buildings and other improvements, he is required to value, with the amount of the value so ascertained, and fully estimate with the buildings or structures of which any land which are set by this act respectively assessed from taxation.

Sec. 20.—In return in the valuation of such taxes, shall use the books and follow the instructions which shall from time to time be provided by the auditor of law, and stipulated to them by the county auditor, in accordance with.

TOWN BOARD OF REVIEW.

Sec. 21.—The assessor, clerk, and chairman of the board of supervisors of each town, and the assessor, recorder, and mayor of each city, (except cities whose charters give to the board of supervisors,) shall meet on the fourth Monday of June, at the office of each clerk or recorder, for the purpose of reviewing the assessment of property in each town or district. And in the application of any person complaining himself aggrieved, or who shall complain that the property of another is assessed too low, they shall review the assessment, and correct the same, as shall appear to them just. No complaint that another is assessed too low shall be acted upon until the person so assessed, or his agent, shall be notified of such complaint, it is a condition of the laws or district. Any two or more other meetings, are authorized to be held, and they may adjourn from day to day, till they shall have finished the hearing of all cases presented on that day. Property assessed after the fourth Monday of June, shall be subject to complaint, to the county board, subject to the same procedure in this section.

Sec. 22.—The assessor shall make a return to the county auditor of the time and place of each meeting, to be given, by posting notices in at least three public places in each town.

Sec. 23.—The failure to give such notice or hold such meeting, shall not vitiate such assessment, except as to the extent of valuation of the taxes shown to be unjustly made or levied.

Sec. 24.—All complaints and grievances of individuals, residents of the town or district, in reference to the assessment of personal property, shall be considered and decided by the town board of review, provided, that the complaints of assessment of any town or district may be heard and determined by the county board.

Sec. 25.—The assessor shall add up and make the aggregate of each column in the assessment books of real and personal property, and shall also make, in each book under proper headings, a proper statement, showing the listings of the several columns upon each page, and shall add up and set down under the respective headings, the total of the several columns.

The situation of matters is expressly directed to the provisions of the following articles.

Sec. 26.—Whenever it shall come to the knowledge of any assessor, who shall have in his hands the assessment for the tax district, that the proprietor of assessment, that any piece of parcel of land or improvement therein within his district, which was liable to be assessed by him, for any past year, since the last time, but which, from any cause, shall not have been assessed for such year, it shall be his duty to enter such lands or improvements upon the assessment list, and from the last year to the present to ascertain the value of such lands or improvements, the value of such year, and to enter such returns for each of such years, in each list, separate the description of each of such pieces or parcels of land.

The town board of review shall review and correct such valuations, from the last meeting within their power, and if he shall have corrected them such valuations for any past or parcel or liable to assessment, but omitted in the past year, such board shall enter in such list such pieces or parcels as omitted by the assessor, with the value for each of the years for which such assessment shall have been levied, which value such board shall ascertain from the true amount within such piece. If the town board of review shall have failed to issue in each assessment list, any such piece or parcel omitted by the assessor, the county auditor shall be bound to insert the same in such list, with the value for the several years, as near as he can ascertain such value. The county board of equalization shall review and correct all returns in such lists of value for past years, and if it comes to their knowledge that there are any pieces or parcels of lands or the improvements therein liable to be assessed, the assessor, and which have not, when such list was before them the equalization, been already entered in such list, they shall proceed to enter the same, with the value thereof for each year.

In each charge for tax and interest as provided in this section shall be made against any property given to the date of ownership of the piece or parcel of such property at the time the listing for such assessed tax was ascertained.

Whenever the state auditor shall have of any piece or parcel of land in any county, which shall have omitted from the assessment for the same, for any year in which they were liable to such assessment, it shall be his duty to notify the auditor of the proper county thereof.

Upon such value being ascertained, the county auditor shall levy separate such piece or parcel the same rate of tax for each year, for the year for which such lands shall not have been assessed, or was levied upon other property, for each year, in the same town or district.

The taxes so levied pursuant to this section shall be collected by the same means as other taxes.

PENALTY FOR NEGLECT OF DUTY.

Sec. 28.—Every assessor, and every clerk and township treasurer, who in any case neglects or knowingly neglects to perform any duty enjoined on him by this act, or who consents to or connives at any violation of its provisions, whereby any proceeding required by this act is prevented or hindered, or whereby any property required to be listed for taxation is voluntarily exempted or the valuation thereof is corrected on the tax list at less than the true value, shall, for every such neglect, wilfully, or wantonly, be fined and pay for the same not less than fifty dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, at the discretion of the court, to be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction.

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSORS.

Office of County Auditor,

Case County, Miss. May 15 1875

To _____
in the County of _____

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Assessment Roll for the year 1875, of all lands and town lots within the said County of _____ of laws which are subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source, and I hereby direct you to assess the same and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties herein connected.

A form of return to be signed by you may be found at the end of this book.

A. E. Hoyle
County Auditor.

Extracts from the General Tax Law relating to the Duties of Assessors in the Assessment of Real Property.

Section 1. Real property, for the purpose of taxation, shall be construed to include the land itself, whether real and fixtures thereto or otherwise, and all buildings, structures and improvements, trees, or other things, of whatever kind, nature, and use, and all rights and privileges incident or appurtenant thereto, and all mines, minerals, quarries and lands to and under the same.

Sec. 2. All property described in this section, to the extent herein defined, shall be so far from taxation, that it is not.

First.—From taxes, and taxes and revenues for the public service, for roads and bridges, ferries, and the grounds attached to such buildings, necessary for the proper occupancy, use, and enjoyment of the same, and the land or buildings used with a view to profit as public schools, public libraries, or publicly owned property with the same, and all lands reserved with public institutions of learning, and used with a view to profit.

This provision shall not extend to lands, buildings or real property held under the authority of any village or authority of laws for its taxation.

Second.—All lands held exclusively for the purpose, or design, for holding the same, except such as are held by any person, company, or corporation, with a view to profit, and the property of associations for the same.

Third.—All property, whether real or personal, belonging exclusively to the State, or to the United States.

Fourth.—All buildings belonging to vessels and all building materials, for sale, or ready to sell, and the ground, not according to any contract or agreement, on which such buildings are erected.

Part.—All lands, tenements, and other buildings belonging to any company, association, or firm, held exclusively for the accommodation of the officers of the same.

Third.—All buildings belonging to institutions of purely public charity, together with the land actually occupied by such institutions, and buildings attached thereto with a view to profit, and all property owned or appurtenant thereto in connection with the carrying on of any such institution, and all lands owned and reserved by agricultural societies, but held or used with a view to profit, not constituting the same.

Fourth.—All fire engines and other instruments used for the extinguishing of fires, with the buildings used exclusively for the safe keeping thereof, and for the storage of the same, whether belonging to any town, or to any fire company organized therein.

Fifth.—All public libraries, public squares, or other public grounds, and all property belonging to such institutions, the public grounds, and all streets, canals, or bridges, together with the same, and used exclusively for the carrying on of the same.

Sixth.—All public schools, and real and personal property belonging to or connected with the same.

Sec. 3. Part.—Each assessor of real property shall be subject to the law and shall return in writing, to the County Auditor, a copy of every parcel of land.

Second.—In determining the title and the value of real or personal property, the assessor shall not take a notice of any other interest of third parties the value to be assessed is a matter of taxation, and shall be subject to the tax on the value of the same, which such persons, tenants and other parties, as a third party, or to the expiration of the
