

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSORS.

Office of County Auditor,

Crawford County, Mo., April 27th 1878To Thomas C. Ferrell, Assessor of the County of Crawford ~~of the County of _____~~

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the "Assessment Roll for the year 1878", of all lands and town lots within the said Crawford ~~County~~ County of Crawford ~~Mo.~~ which are subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source, and I hereby direct you to assess the same and make returns thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of return to be signed by you may be found at the end of this book.

F. X. Goulet

County Auditor.

Extracts from the General Tax Law relating to the Duties of Assessors in the Assessment of Real Property.

Section 1.—Real property, for the purposes of taxation, shall be regarded as include the land itself, whether held out in town lots or otherwise, and all buildings, structures and improvements, trees or other fixtures, of whatever kind or nature, and all signs and partitions belonging to private enterprises, streets, and all signs, notices, advertisements, bills or notices for sale or lease.

Sec. 2.—All property described in this section, in the extent herein limited, shall be exempt from taxation, that is to say:

First.—Public school lands, and houses and edifices for public schools, the sites and fixtures thereon, and the grounds attached to such buildings necessary for the proper occupancy, use, and enjoyment of the same, and not used as otherwise used with a view to profit; all public buildings, public institutions, or buildings connected with the same, and all lands connected with public institutions of learning, but not with a view to profit.

This provision shall not extend to household estates of real property held under the authority of any college or university of learning in this State.

Second.—All lands and edifices for cemeteries, or grounds for burying the dead, except such as are held by any person, company, or corporation, with a view to profit, or for the purpose of speculation in the sale thereof.

Third.—All property, whether real or personal, belonging to the State, or to the United States.

Fourth.—All buildings belonging to churches used for religious worship, the sites, or cemeteries, with the grounds, and extending to any extent, the signs on which such buildings are erected.

Fifth.—All boats, houses, and other buildings belonging to any person, knowingly or to him, and exclusively for the accommodation or support of the poor.

Sixth.—All buildings belonging to institutions of pious public charity, together with the land actually occupied by such institutions and used in relation thereto with a view to profit, and all houses and edifices appropriated solely to teaching and instructing pupils in the said institutions, and all lands, tenements, and buildings connected therewith, and used as such with a view to profit, and extending to any extent.

Seventh.—All the signs and other improvements used for the incorporated them, with the buildings and fixtures for the sale hereinafter provided, and for the mortgaging of the companies, whether belonging to any town, or to any two companies of the town.

Article 1.—A number of town, public, private, or other public goods, houses, or tenements, houses of trade, stocks, bonds, or other public goods, and all stocks, securities, or debts belonging to said town and not exclusively the creditors, either in each town.

And,—All public libraries, and real and personal property to be kept here is returned with the same.

Art. 20. Right.—Each separate parcel of real property shall be valued at its true and real value in justice, estimating the extent of every parcel of land.

And,—In determining the true and fair value of real or personal property, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the value is to be used as a basis of taxation; nor shall he adopt one criterion of value for the same for each such parcel of real or personal property, or at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in his district; but he shall value each parcel or lot by itself, and at each rate or price as follows the same to be fully worth as many of the town each assessment is worth.

And,—In valuing any real property upon which there is an actual or other value, or more or other property, the same shall be valued at such a price as each property, including the same in quantity, would sell at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

And,—In valuing household articles shall be valued at such a price as they would bring at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Art. 21. The assessor shall, in all cases, from the true and actual value of such property, and according to the value provided in this act for valuing real property, ascertain and determine, as near as practicable, the fair value of each separate lot or land appearing to be the assessed land furnished him by the county assessor, and he shall set there against each parcel of land its own assessment, the true value thereof, as ascertained and determined, and shall value each separate lot, of all houses, mills and other buildings, and every one hundred dollars to value on any such parcel of land where there has been fire, which shall be returned on as part of the value of such land, and he shall also value in the assessment both the real and personal property on each parcel.

Art. 22. If the assessor determine any real property subject to taxation, which has not been taxed by him by the county assessor, he shall set and value such property, and if any real or personal property shall be omitted in the assessment, or if any real or personal property, or in a taxpayer who is liable on such property, shall have been assessed, he shall set and value such property by means of a return showing him an assessment thereof, shall file to pay taxes for any year or years, or other year or years, which assessment, shall be returned by the assessor and placed on the same district assessment books. The percentage of loss a town would have been assessed shall be charged against such property by the county assessor.

Art. 23. The assessor shall compute, at the time of taking a list of personal property, also a list of all real property referred to in this act, and make such property, and if any real or personal property shall be omitted in the assessment, or if any real or personal property, or in a taxpayer who is liable on such property, shall have been assessed, he shall set and value such property by means of a return showing him an assessment thereof, shall file to pay taxes for any year or years, or other year or years, which assessment, shall be returned by the assessor and placed on the same district assessment books. The percentage of loss a town would have been assessed shall be charged against such property by the county assessor.

Art. 24. The assessor shall compute, at the time of taking a list of personal property, also a list of all real property referred to in this act, and make such property, and if any real or personal property shall be omitted in the assessment, or if any real or personal property, or in a taxpayer who is liable on such property, shall have been assessed, he shall set and value such property by means of a return showing him an assessment thereof, shall file to pay taxes for any year or years, or other year or years, which assessment, shall be returned by the assessor and placed on the same district assessment books. The percentage of loss a town would have been assessed shall be charged against such property by the county assessor.

time or time as practicable, from which he shall receive all for all public use for compensation of such destruction, and shall receive thereof to be made a condition to the act provided.

Art. 25. The assessor shall be authorized to determine the value of buildings and other improvements, he is required to make, with the consent of the owner or owners thereof, and shall estimate all buildings in the town of whatever kind which are not by their nature exempt from taxation.

Art. 26. Any person in the execution of their duties, shall use the forms and follow the instructions, which shall then from time to time be provided by the holder of said act and published to them by the county assessor, in the practice of his

JOHN BOARD OF REVIEW

Art. 27. The assessor, clerk, and members of the board of superior courts of each town, and the assessor, assessor, and keeper of each city, except those whose duties provide a kind of exemption, I shall meet on the fourth Monday of June, at the office of each clerk or assessor, for the purpose of reviewing the assessment of property in each town or district. And on the application of any person requesting himself or others shall examine the list of property of another in assessed tax here, they shall review the assessment, and correct the same, or shall appear to them just. The assessor shall examine in person the list of property to be assessed, but they shall be called upon with the person assessed, or his agent, shall be notified of such inspection, if a member of the town or district. Any town or other officer, agent, or authorized to act, and they may appear from day to day. All their duties shall be decided the hearing of all persons concerned in the property assessed under the fourth Monday of June, which shall be subject to correction by the county board, subject to the review specified in this act.

Art. 28. The assessor shall not be held liable for giving notice of the time and place of such meeting, to the person, by posting the same in or on each public place in each town.

Art. 29. The failure to give such notice or hold such meeting, shall not release such assessor, except as to the extent of collection of the tax there assessed to be judicially enforced.

Art. 30. All complaints and objections of individuals, residents of the town or district, in reference to the assessment of personal property, shall be returned and the whole by the town board of review. Provided, that the complaint of non-payment of any tax or district may be heard and determined by the county board.

Art. 31. The assessor shall set up and make the aggregate of all such returns in the assessment books of real and personal property, and shall file the same in each book under proper headings, to be filed in the office of the clerk of the town of the several returns upon each page, and shall set up and set down under the respective headings, the terms of the several returns.

FEMALY FOR NEGLECT OF DUTY.

Art. 32. Every county, public, or other district and township assessor, who is not a county or township assessor, or assessor, any daily required on his list, or in, when assessed or in reference to any return of the assessment, whereby any proceeding against him is not provided of himself, or, whereby any property required to be found the taxpayer is necessarily exempt, or the valuation thereof is collected on the list for at least three years, shall, for every such neglect, refusal, or omission, forfeit and pay to the state for each year he is liable no more than one thousand dollars for the detection of the same, to be assessed before any such of completed jurisdiction.
