

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSORS.

Office of County Auditor,

Cass County, Miss. May 1st 1875

To W. H. Moore Assessor of the First Assessment of District _____ in the County aforesaid.

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Assessment Roll for the year 1875, of all lands and town lots within the said County of Cass which are subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source, and I hereby direct you to assess the same and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of return to be signed by you may be found at the end of this book.

A. E. Starff,
County Auditor.

Extracts from the General Tax Law relating to the Duties of Assessors in the Assessment of Real Property.

Section 1. Real property, for the purposes of taxation, shall be construed to include the land itself, whether held out in town lots or otherwise, and all buildings, structures and improvements, trees or other fixtures, or whatsoever kind thereof, and all rights and privileges belonging or appurtenant thereto, and all mines, minerals, quarries and fossils in and under the same.

Sec. 2. All property described in this section, in the several kinds listed, shall be exempt from taxation, that is to say:

First.—Public school houses, and houses used exclusively for public worship, the books and fixtures therein, and the grounds attached to such buildings, necessary for the proper occupancy, use, and enjoyment of the same, and not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit; all public colleges, public academies, all buildings connected with the same, and all lands connected with public institutions of learning, not used with a view to profit.

This provision shall not extend to household contents of real property held under the authority of any college or university of learning in this State.

Second.—All lands used exclusively for graveyards, or grounds for burying the dead, except such as are held by any person, company, or corporation, with a view to profit, or for the purposes of speculation in the sale thereof.

Third.—All property, whether real or personal, belonging exclusively to the State, or to the United States.

Fourth.—All buildings belonging to churches and for holding courts, for jails, or county offices, with the ground, and extending in any county tax area, on which such buildings are erected.

Fifth.—All lands, houses, and other buildings belonging to any county, township, or town, used exclusively for the accommodation or support of the poor.

Sixth.—All buildings belonging to institutions of purely public charity, together with the land actually occupied by such institutions not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit, and all mines and mines appropriated solely to sustaining and belonging exclusively to such institutions, and all lands owned and occupied by agricultural societies, not leased or used with a view to profit, not exceeding eighty acres.

Seventh.—All the engines and other implements used for the establishment of dams, with the buildings used exclusively for the sale keeping thereof, and for the meeting of fire companies, whether belonging to any town, or to any fire company organized therein.

Eighth.—All market houses, public squares, or other public grounds, houses of assembly, houses of public worship, the public property, and all works, machinery, or fixtures belonging to any town and used exclusively for conveying water to such town.

Ninth.—All public libraries, and real and personal property belonging to or connected with the same.

Sec. 10. First.—Each separate parcel of real property shall be valued at its true and full value in money, excluding the value of crops growing thereon.

Second.—In determining the true and full value of real or personal property, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is located in a town or township, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction, or at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in two districts, but he shall value each tract or lot by itself, and of each tract or lot as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money at the time such assessment is made.

Sec. 14.—In valuing any real property upon which there is a lien of other taxes, or upon or other property, the same shall be valued of such a price as such property, including the taxes or liens, would sell at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Sec. 15.— taxable personal property shall be valued at such a price as they would bring at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Sec. 16. The assessor shall, in all cases, from the best sources of information within his reach, and according to the value given in the act for valuing real property, ascertain said valuations, as near as practicable, the true value of each separate tract of land appearing in the assessment book furnished him by the county auditor, and he shall set down opposite each tract at least in such assessment book, the true value thereof as ascertained and determined, and he shall note separately, the value of all houses, wells and other buildings which exceed one hundred dollars in value on any such tract of land other than town lots, which shall be carried out as a part of the value of such tract, and he shall also enter in the assessment book the number of acres of water or pine land, and the number of acres of wood- and timber-land, as near as may be.

Sec. 17. If the assessor discovers any real property subject to taxation, which has not been listed by him by the county auditor, he shall list and assess such property.

Sec. 18. The assessor shall annually, at the time of taking a list of personal property, also take a list of all real property situated in his territory that has become subject to taxation since the last previous listing of property therein, with the value thereof estimated according to the rules prescribed thereby by this act, and of all new buildings or other structures of any kind of over one hundred dollars in value, the value of which has not been previously ascertained or included in the list of such town lots on which such structures have been erected, and he shall make return to the county auditor thereof, at the same time and in the manner provided by this act, in order that he may be enabled to list the same. He shall also make return to the county auditor, at the same time and in the manner provided by this act, of all new structures, wells and other buildings, which have been erected previous to the last valuation of the land on which the same stood, or the value of which has been added to any former valuation of such land, the assessor shall determine as near as practicable, how much less such land would sell for private sale in consequence of such destruction, and make return thereof to the county auditor as in this act provided.

Sec. 19. The process of raising the money to construct the value of buildings and other improvements, to be required in return with the receipt of the county or precinct thereof, and duly examined with all buildings or structures of whatever kind which are not by law or expressly exempted from taxation.

Sec. 20. Assessors in the execution of their duties, shall use the forms and follow the instructions which shall from time to time be provided by the auditor of state, and distributed to them by the county auditor, in pursuance of law.

TOWN BOARD OF REVIEW.

Sec. 21. The assessor, clerk, and chairman of the board of supervisors of each town, and the assessor, recorder, and mayor of each city, (except in those districts provided for a board of equalization,) shall meet on the fourth Monday of June, at the office of such clerk or recorder, for the purpose of reviewing the assessment of property in each town or district. And on the application of any person complaining himself aggrieved, or who shall complain that the property of another is assessed too low, they shall review the assessment, and correct the same, as shall appear to them just. In complaint that another is assessed too low shall be acted upon until the person so assessed, or his agent, shall be satisfied of such complaint, if a resident of the town or district. Any two of said officers meeting, are authorized to sit, and they may adjourn from day to day, and they shall have defined the hearing of all cases presented on that day. Property assessed after the fourth Monday of June, shall be subject to complaint to the county board, subject to the rules specified in this section.

Sec. 22. The assessor shall cause to be run on three separate copies of the time and place of each meeting, to be given, by posting notices in at least three public places in each town.

Sec. 23. The failure to give such notice or hold said meeting, shall not vitiate such assessment, except as to the extent of valuation for tax therein shown to be unjustly made or levied.

Sec. 24. All complaints and grievances of individuals, residents of the town or district, in relation to the assessment of personal property, shall be considered and decided by the township board of law, provided that the complaint of non-residents of any town or district may be heard and determined by the county board.

Sec. 25. The assessor shall add up and note the aggregate of such valuations in the assessment books of town and precinct property. And shall also cause to each book under proper headings, a separate statement, showing the findings of the several valuers upon such papers, and shall set up and set down under the respective headings, the totals of the several columns.

The aggregate of assessors is respectively returned to the possession of the following parties.

Sec. 26. Whenever it shall come to the knowledge of any assessor, who shall have in his hands the assessment list for his district and the papers of assessors, that any piece or parcel of land or improvements therein within his district, which was liable to be assessed by him for the year prior to that the year last, but which, from any cause, shall not have been assessed for such year, it shall be his duty to enter such lands or improvements upon the assessment list, and from the first return in his power to ascertain the value of such lands or improvements, for each of such years, and to enter such values for each of such years, in such list, opposite the description of each of such pieces or parcels of land.

The town board of review shall review and correct such valuations, from the last return within their power, and if he shall have certified from such assessment list any piece or parcel of land to assessment, but omitted to give price, such board shall enter in such list such price as it may be entitled by the assessor, with the value for each of the years for which such assessment shall have been certified, which value shall being said according to the last return within their power. If the town board of review shall have failed to insert in such assessment list, any such piece or parcel certified by the assessor, the county auditor shall so insert the same in such list, with the values for the certified years, as near as he can ascertain such values. The county board of equalization shall review and correct all entries in such parts of values for prior years, and if it come to their knowledge that there are any pieces or parcels of lands or the improvements therein liable to be assessed for prior years, and which have not, when such list came to their hands for equalization, been already entered in such list, they shall proceed to enter the same, with the values thereof for each year.

No such change for tax and interest as provided in this section shall be made against any property prior to the date of receiving of the proceeds arising such property or the time the hearing for such contract tax was concluded.

Whenever the county auditor shall have of any piece or parcel of land in any county, which have been certified from prior assessment for taxes, for any years for which they were liable in such assessment, it shall be his duty to notify the auditor of the papers county thereof.

Upon such values being as ascertained, the county auditor shall levy upon such pieces or parcels the same rate of tax for each year, as was levied upon other property, for such years, in the same town or district.

The taxes levied pursuant to this section shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes.

PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF DUTY.

Sec. 27. Every county auditor, and every district and township assessor, who in any civil return or knowingly neglects to perform any duty enjoined on him by this act, or who commits to or consents to any violation of its provisions, whereby any proceeding instituted by this act is prevented or hindered, or whereby any property required to be listed the taxation is unlawfully exempted or the valuation thereof is reduced or the tax levied thereon less than the true value, shall, on every such neglect, refusal, consent or connivance, forfeit and pay to the State not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, at the discretion of the court, to be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction.

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSORS.

Office of County Auditor,

Law County, Minn. 4 of 1875

To Assessors of the 2^d Assessment Dist^{ct} of _____ in the County aforesaid.

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Assessment Roll for the year 1875, of all lands and town lots within the said 2^d Assessment District of Law County which are subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any sources, and I hereby direct you to assess the same and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of return to be signed by you may be found at the end of this book.

Ed. C. Stauff
 County Auditor.

Extracts from the General Tax Law relating to the Duties of Assessors in the Assessment of Real Property.

SECTION 2. Real property, for the purpose of taxation, shall be construed to include the land itself, whether held out in town lots or otherwise, and all buildings, structures and improvements, trees or other fixtures, of whatsoever kind thereon, and all rights and privileges belonging or appertaining thereto, and all mines, minerals, quarries and shafts in and under the same.

Sec. 3. All property described in this section, in the extent herein defined, shall be exempt from taxation, that is to say:

First.—Public school houses, and houses used exclusively for the public worship, the books and furniture therein, and the grounds attached to such buildings, necessary for the proper occupancy, use, and enjoyment of the same, and not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit; all public colleges, public academies, all buildings connected with the same, and all lands connected with public institutions of learning, not used with a view to profit.

This provision shall not extend to lands held out as real property held under the authority of any college or university of learning in this State.

Second.—All lands used exclusively for graveyards, or grounds for burying the dead, except such as are held by any person, company, or corporation, with a view to profit, or for the purpose of speculation in the sale thereof.

Third.—All property, whether real or personal, belonging exclusively to the State, or to the United States.

Fourth.—All buildings belonging to consider used for holding courts, for jails, or county offices, with the grounds, not exceeding in any county ten acres, on which such buildings are erected.

Fifth.—All lands, houses, and other buildings belonging to any county, township, or town, used exclusively for the accommodation or support of the poor.

Sixth.—All buildings belonging to institutions of purely public charity, together with the land actually occupied by such institutions and leased or otherwise used with a view to profit, and all money and credits appropriated solely to maintaining and belonging exclusively to such institutions; and all lands owned and occupied by agricultural societies, not leased or used with a view to profit, and succeeding rights thereon.

Seventh.—All the engines and other implements used for the cultivation of them, and the buildings used exclusively for the sale keeping thereof, and for the storage of the produce, whether belonging to any town, or to any the company organized therein.

Eighth.—All market houses, public squares, or other public grounds, towns or townships, houses or lands, used exclusively for public purposes, and all works, machinery, or fixtures belonging to any town and used exclusively for conveying water to such town.

Ninth.—All public libraries, and real and personal property belonging to or connected with the same.

Sec. 10. First.—Each separate parcel of real property shall be valued at its true and full value in money, including the value of crops growing thereon.

Second.—In determining the true and full value of real or personal property, the assessor shall adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, and shall be subject as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction, or at a forced sale, or to the aggregate with of the
