DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

County, Minn. April 26, 1935.

Frank L. Josephs Assessor of the Village of Chesed Lake

IN THE COUNTY AFORESAID.

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the said Village for the year 1935, and

I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereunto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

J. J. Brown County Auditor.

EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

(Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minn. Statutes 1927.)
 Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, is taxable, except such as is by law exempt therefrom.

Sec. 1984. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every even-numbered year with reference to its value on May 1 of the preceding year, and all personal property becoming taxable any intervening year shall be listed and assessed on May 1, and, if not so listed, shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if not so listed, shall be listed and assessed on that day, by the person acquiring it.

RELATING TO THE LISTING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. The property of a person shall be listed by himself, or by his guardian, or by the person having such property in his possession, or by the executor or administrator of his estate, or by the trustee of a trust, or by the trustee of the estate of a deceased person, by the owner of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. The property of a person shall be listed separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned or deposited subject to his order, check, or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company, or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in his possession, or by the executor or administrator.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchant or manufacturer.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides. Property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on. Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid in full.

Sec. 2004. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside in the county or district where the farm is situated, the assessor shall list the principal place of business of such farm in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 2005-1. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel, and other personal property, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2006. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company, which is an in good district, shall be listed and assessed in the district where situated, and exclusively controlled by such company, as "warehouse equipment."

Sec. 2012-1. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in the county, town, or district where situated, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where situated, and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Personal property of guardian. The personal property of a minor under guardianship, when the ward resides in the county, town, or district where the guardian resides, and of a minor, other than a minor under guardianship, when the ward resides in another county, town, or district, shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another county, town, or district, shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another county, town, or district.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year.

Sec. 2003. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign a certificate of the amount and value so ascertained.

Sec. 2004. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in any other county, town, or district, and may administer the oath to him, and may require him to discover under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2005. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1936. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or required to be made by law, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1995. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lien tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of its full and true value thereof.

Class 2. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3) and four (4) as the case may be.

Class 3. The aggregate of the value of the ore, exclusive of the value of the land on which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 4. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or the equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 5. The value of agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a," (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a," (3a), and class three "b," (3b), shall be assessed at thirty-three (33) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 6a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a," (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 7. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.
