Lot 12 at twice the size of Lot 13

The plat on file in the Register's Office shows that there is no Lot 7, Blk. 42, O. P. Second Division. Up till about a year ago we had this lot on our tax lists but at the time the Railway Company put in an application for a reduction in assessed valuation of certain lots in this territory, on account of railway right-of-way being deducted, we discovered that the lot in question should not have been on at all.

Guess the party who copied your assessment book got a little mixed up on decimal points when entering the acreage on Auditor's Plat No. 4. On the reverse side of this letter I have listed the acreage of the lots and I have also checked the acreage on our tax list so that it corresponds.
