Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following: 1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock, money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list, separately, and in the name of his principal, any property of a partner or copartner, or of a receiver, or of a trustee, or of a guardian, or of a minor child or insane person, or of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator of the estate of such person, or by the receiver, or by such receiver.

3. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, or of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

4. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

5. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of a receiver, or of a body politic or corporate, by such agent or officer thereof.

Sec. 1992. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the realty, town, or district where the property is located, or in the county, town, or district in which the principal place of business of the person owning the property is situated.

Sec. 1995. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and listed in the county, town, or district in which the principal place of business of the person owning the property is situated.

Sec. 1996. Personal property of non-residents. When the owner of livestock of any property of non-resident, or of a partnership, or of a firm, or of a body politic or corporate, or of a receiver, or of a trustee, or of a guardian, or of a minor child or insane person, or of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator of the estate of such person, or by the receiver, or by such receiver, shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all the personal property of such person, or of such partnership, or of such firm, or of such body politic or corporate, or of such receiver, or of such guardian, or of such minor child or insane person, or of such person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of such decedent, or of such estate of a deceased person, shall be listed and assessed in this state.

Sec. 1997. Personal property of non-residents. When the owner of livestock of any property of non-resident, or of a partnership, or of a firm, or of a body politic or corporate, or of a receiver, or of a trustee, or of a guardian, or of a minor child or insane person, or of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator of the estate of such person, or by the receiver, or by such receiver, shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all the personal property of such person, or of such partnership, or of such firm, or of such body politic or corporate, or of such receiver, or of such guardian, or of such minor child or insane person, or of such person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of such decedent, or of such estate of a deceased person, shall be listed and assessed in this state.

Sec. 1998. Personal property of non-residents. When the owner of livestock of any property of non-resident, or of a partnership, or of a firm, or of a body politic or corporate, or of a receiver, or of a trustee, or of a guardian, or of a minor child or insane person, or of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator of the estate of such person, or by the receiver, or by such receiver, shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all the personal property of such person, or of such partnership, or of such firm, or of such body politic or corporate, or of such receiver, or of such guardian, or of such minor child or insane person, or of such person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of such decedent, or of such estate of a deceased person, shall be listed and assessed in this state.

Sec. 1999. Personal property of non-residents. When the owner of livestock of any property of non-resident, or of a partnership, or of a firm, or of a body politic or corporate, or of a receiver, or of a trustee, or of a guardian, or of a minor child or insane person, or of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator of the estate of such person, or by the receiver, or by such receiver, shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all the personal property of such person, or of such partnership, or of such firm, or of such body politic or corporate, or of such receiver, or of such guardian, or of such minor child or insane person, or of such person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of such decedent, or of such estate of a deceased person, shall be listed and assessed in this state.

Sec. 2000. Personal property of non-residents. When the owner of livestock of any property of non-resident, or of a partnership, or of a firm, or of a body politic or corporate, or of a receiver, or of a trustee, or of a guardian, or of a minor child or insane person, or of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator of the estate of such person, or by the receiver, or by such receiver, shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all the personal property of such person, or of such partnership, or of such firm, or of such body politic or corporate, or of such receiver, or of such guardian, or of such minor child or insane person, or of such person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of such decedent, or of such estate of a deceased person, shall be listed and assessed in this state.

Sec. 2001. Personal property of non-residents. When the owner of livestock of any property of non-resident, or of a partnership, or of a firm, or of a body politic or corporate, or of a receiver, or of a trustee, or of a guardian, or of a minor child or insane person, or of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator of the estate of such person, or by the receiver, or by such receiver, shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all the personal property of such person, or of such partnership, or of such firm, or of such body politic or corporate, or of such receiver, or of such guardian, or of such minor child or insane person, or of such person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of such decedent, or of such estate of a deceased person, shall be listed and assessed in this state.

Sec. 2002. Personal property of non-residents. When the owner of livestock of any property of non-resident, or of a partnership, or of a firm, or of a body politic or corporate, or of a receiver, or of a trustee, or of a guardian, or of a minor child or insane person, or of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator of the estate of such person, or by the receiver, or by such receiver, shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all the personal property of such person, or of such partnership, or of such firm, or of such body politic or corporate, or of such receiver, or of such guardian, or of such minor child or insane person, or of such person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of such decedent, or of such estate of a deceased person, shall be listed and assessed in this state.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, remaining from one county, town, or district to another, in this state, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district in which he first called upon by the assessor. A person moving his property from one county, town, or district to another, in this state, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district in which he first called upon by the assessor.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be ascertained from the facts, the assessor shall list it in the county, town, or district in which the property is located, or in the county, town, or district in which the principal place of business of the person owning the property is situated.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be verified. Every person responsible for the listing of personal property shall make out and deliver to the assessor a list of such property, in which he shall state the name of the owner, the place for listing and assessing the same, and the amount and value of such property, and shall also make accurate statements in like manner of all other personal property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which the property is located, or in the county, town, or district in which the principal place of business of the person owning the property is situated.
