DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

1930

State of Minnesota, County, Minn., April 1, 1930

William Peat Assessor of the Village of Remer

IN THE COUNTY AFORESAID:

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

W. A. Galen

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers refer to General Statutes 1923.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1st and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such corporation or company is not assessed in this state) or property acquired or inherited, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise entrusted by him as the agent or attorney, or as a partner, or as any other person, company or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Personality.—Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and assigned to be transported out of, this state shall be listed and assessed in the district where they are to be transported, and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the district of the county of the taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of land or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1925.—Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad operated by an individual, good faith owned, company which are situated in any town or district, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the name of the owner, whether situated in another place of business of said company or not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving from one county to another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place for listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, which shall be determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, in triplicate, furnished by him, a verified statement of the property owned and assessed by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter or under his control by this chapter or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, or other person, shall be required to include in his statement any share of the total stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for another person, jointly, or corporation, has not made a full and fair complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath.

son under oath in regard to the amount of the property he has listed, and, if such person shall refuse to make a full and correct inventory under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When required, he shall sign and deliver to the assessed, a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling. Any officer authorized by law to assess property, taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person making any statement, oral or written, which is authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1913. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to any gross earnings or other lien shall be assessed for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The value of the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of class three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessable tract or the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located shall be assessed separately, and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three (3), (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, all fixtures or other items, except as provided by class three (3), (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be assessed and valued at thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3 %) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three (3) (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for furnishing us with the information we desire in connection with 1929 taxes covering the following property:

NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ Lot 11, Block 143, Range 26
NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ Lot 12, Block 143, Range 26
Lots 6 & 7, Section 6, Block 141, Range 26
Lot 13, Block 2, Village of Remer

We note the valuation of Lot 13, Block 2, Village of Remer, is $1284.00 and that this amount represents 40% of the true value of the property. If we are to judge the value of this property by the amount it could be sold for, it seems to us the valuation of $1284.00 is entirely too high.

We will be pleased to have you refer this letter to your assessor for his consideration.

Yours very truly,
