Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property

(Section Numbers refer to General Statutes 1923.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation. All real and personal property of this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. **Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to a value on May 1, and, if acquired on that date, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, stocks or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney-in-fact of any other person, company or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Personalty.—Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and shipped to be transported out of, this state shall be listed and assessed in the district where from they are shipped.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1925.—Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including dishes, musical instruments, sewing machines, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the use of a family, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, situated upon the land of any railroad company which is not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies. The property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the principal limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a decedent shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Personal property of a minor under guardianship. Personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed in the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The personal property of a person moving from one county town or village to another between May 1 and July 1 shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of the year in which he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the session, that the property is in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or paper provided for in this chapter, the assessor shall not be limited as in this chapter provided, but for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commissioner, and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, in duplicate, a statement of the property owned by him on May 1 of the year in which he shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, partner, factor, receiver, accounting officer, but no person shall in any other capacity, in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 10303. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such value. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling copy for taxation map. When necessary to the proper performance of his duties, he may enter any well, mine, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who makes any statement, oral or written, which is untrue or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to false material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1913. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lien tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, all constitute class one (1) and shall be valued at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. Iron ore mined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid.
