Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, and, if he is a resident of the state, in the town or district in which he resides. Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-residents. When the owner of any farm property, which is not in good faith owned, is not a resident of this state, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the farm is situated in several towns or districts, to-wit: in the town or district in which the farm is situated, and in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such firm is located. Sec. 2011. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, and all railroad companies which are not in good faith owned, shall be listed and assessed in several towns or districts, to-wit: in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such firm is located, and in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such firm is located. Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such company is located, and in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such company is located. Sec. 2013. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such company is located, and in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such company is located. Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a decedent person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Section 1986, General Statutes of Minnesota, 1923. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if known, the acreage, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions from the county auditor as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of five dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile traveled by the assessor from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
