Barclay, Cass

Section 1985, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county. The books shall be furnished to the assessor with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and the location of the land, the lot or parts of lots, or blocks including the same, and the description of the property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year shall be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday next after the first day of July of each year. The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day for which he is actually engaged in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat or to and from the county seat, and the usual travel route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
