Township No. 133 and 134 Range No. 32 Mer. P. M.

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR
OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Carroll County, Minn.

1933

Assessor of the Town of Jackson

IN THE COUNTY AFORESAID:

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the Town for the year 1933, containing a list of all lands and town lots subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

W. A. Galt

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property

(Section Numbers refer to General Statutes 1923.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, is subject to taxation, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

Sec. 1984. **Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his personal property, including stock of joint stock companies or corporations (when the property is in this state), money loaned or invested in annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property invested, loaned or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company or corporation, and all money loaned or invested in any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or infant person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, such as merchant, shall be listed in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Personalty. Where listed. Except as otherwise chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. Personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on. Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the district and of the county of the taxing district and of the town or district in which such taxes are paid, and such taxes shall not be required beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. Where listed. The owner of live stock or other personal property assessed with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1925—Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevator, mill, saw, and other machinery and fixtures, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned or controlled exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where the same are situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, town, or district, shall be listed and assessed as personal property without regard to where the same are situated, and assessed as personal property in the other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306. Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of cities, villages, towns, and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every ward person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May 1 and July 1. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in the county, town, or district upon which the property is first moved into this state from another state before said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be placed in the same county, the place for listing the same shall be determined if between different counties, and in such different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list personal property or taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession, control, or management, which he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, receiver, executor, administrator, partner, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure of such property, the assessor may, according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount, and value of such property, and he shall assess the same accordingly. When he is requested, he shall furnish a copy of the statement assessed to the person assessed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property thereon.

Sec. 19306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any return, or in writing, which is required or authorized to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing taxes, or in making any statement which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1913. Classification of Property. What percentages of full value shall be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, the real estate assessed with and as a part of the real estate assessed, shall be valued but at the rate aforesaid. Other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of class three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which the iron ore is located, the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the value of the land and exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal or domestic purposes, or for the furnishing of a household, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural implements, except as provided by class three "a," (3a), together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be assessed and valued at three (3) per cent and one-third (33 1/3%) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural implements and machinery used by the owner in class agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a," (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.
