Section 1936. Maroon's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment books, a list of all real property subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, the last of each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the value of the property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment books. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year. The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of ten cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury up to the warrant of the county auditor.
