The real and personal property assessment books for the year 1966, are hereby delivered to you. The list of real estate contains all descriptions subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source, and you are directed to assess all property and make a return thereon as required by the laws of the State of Minnesota, providing the duties of the assessor, it for the year 1966, return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property Section Numbers refer to Minnesota Statutes

Sec. 273.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, except that which is exempt from taxation...

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED Sec. 273.01 . . . Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.02. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in this state, except that which is exempt from taxation, by the owner or possessor of the same, or by the guardian, or by the person having such property in charge, or by the administrator of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such other person as may be designated in the laws of this state.

Sec. 273.23. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of gas and water companies, including their pipes, mains, and other property, shall be listed and assessed in the same manner as other personal property.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall also list the value of all articles purchased, received, or sold by him in any process of manufacturing, including machinery or building material, and the value of all articles used in the manufacturing process, and the value of all articles used in the manufacturing process, and the value of all articles used in the manufacturing process.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list his property shall verify the same by a sworn statement, which shall be filed with the assessor, and which shall contain a list of the property listed, and the value of each item, and the name of the person by whom listed.

Sec. 273.26. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed, the assessor may, in his discretion, list the same in any place in the county, and the value of the property shall be determined by the assessor.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal goods, wares, and chattels, including goods and furniture, including tools, instruments, sewing machines, and other articles, shall be listed and assessed in the same manner as other personal property.

Sec. 273.28. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of merchants and manufacturers, including their stocks, bonds, and other securities, shall be listed and assessed in the same manner as other personal property.

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-residents. When the real and personal property of a non-resident, including his land, buildings, and other property, is situated in this state, it shall be listed and assessed in the same manner as other personal property.

Sec. 273.31. Transmission and distribution lines. All transmission and distribution lines, and equipment thereon, having a fixed site outside the corporate limits of any city, village, or town, shall be listed and assessed in the same manner as other personal property.

Sec. 273.32. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of gas and water companies, including their pipes, mains, and other property, shall be listed and assessed in the same manner as other personal property.

Sec. 273.33. Classification of property. Subdivision 1. How classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section. Subdivision 2. How classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Sec. 273.34. Estate of decedent. The personal property of the estate of a decedent, including his real and personal property, shall be listed and assessed in the same manner as other personal property.

Sec. 273.35. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for another person, has not listed the same, or that the value of the property listed is incorrect, he may examine such person under oath in order to ascertain the true value of the property, and the person so examined shall be liable for the same.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1966 assessment by The Commissioner of Taxation

Minnesota Statutes, Section 270.07. The commissioner of taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks included in each description of property.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.04. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service, the sum of $10.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of 7 1/2 cents per mile, for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
