Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property residing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in the district in which he resided on May 1 of such year. A person removing into the state from another state between said dates shall list property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing property, the same may be listed as to the proper place of listing property, the same may be listed as in the chapter provided, if between places in the same county, by the assessor making and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor a statement, verified by his oath, containing a list of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also list all personal property in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.05. Examination under oath. Wherever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or as the agent, guardian, trustee, officer, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.08. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of property from any person, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property assessed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may administer oaths, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of taxation or assessment of any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any matter or thing which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 272.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1, How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other like tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "c", stocks of merchandise and all such together with the furniture and fixtures, all tools, implements, materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements, materials and manufactured articles, all boats, motorboats, and vessels, and all other property, except as provided by class three "a" and all real estate which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, except as provided by class three "b" hereof, and all buildings and improvements assessed as personal property, except as provided by class three "b" of the State of Minnesota or the United States Government which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 8. Class 5d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class five (5d) and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 6. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4a) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1952 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
