EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

(Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minn. Statutes 1927.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, . . . is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED Every even-numbered year, with reference to its value on May 1 preceding the assessment, and all real property becoming taxable on the first day of that year, shall be assessed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person requiring it.

CLASSIFICATION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.
2. Any person who has, in any town or district, any other personal property located, leased, or deposited subject to his order, check, or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company, or corporation.
3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.
4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.
5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.
6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.
7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.
8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchant-town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the manner provided in this chapter, but the listing of such property shall be assessed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person requiring it.

Sec. 2012-1. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property . . . of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages, shall be assessed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person requiring it.

Sec. 2008. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of personal property is a non-resident of this state, the property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor or guardian shall be listed and assessed where the person, under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignments and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another, on or before May 1, shall be assessed in either in which he was first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state before May 1, shall be assessed in the county, town, or district where he resides at the time of his assessment, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be determined in this chapter provided, the assessor shall determine it between different counties, or places in different counties, and shall be assessed at the place determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, is not true and correct, he may require the person to appear before him and take an oath, or to make a statement under oath, in writing, as to the true value of the property, and as to the value of the same, and to furnish such information as may be necessary to enable him to assess the same.

Sec. 2022. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property by the best judgment and information.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1998. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made, or in making any return, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, who shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 1999. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lien tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Personal property, including stocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of men, women, and children, jewelry, watches, clocks, and other articles of value, shall be assessed at fifty per cent of its true and full value.

Class 2. Personal property, including stocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of men, women, and children, jewelry, watches, clocks, and other articles of value, shall be assessed at fifty per cent of its true and full value.

Class 3. Agricultural products, including crops, hives, beehives, and other products, shall be assessed at fifty per cent of their true and full value.

Class 4. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products except as provided by class three "a," (3a), stocks of merchandise of all kinds, and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a," (3a) and all unimproved lands, all tools, implements, and other articles of value, shall be assessed at fifty per cent of their true and full value.

Class 5. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a," (3a), and shall be valued and assessed at ten per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 6. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty per cent of the full and true value thereof.
