Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Department of Taxation in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a person under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the guardian's residence, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place where the business of the debtor or obligor was carried on.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removed from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either county, town, or district where the property was located in this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district where the property was located on that date.

Sec. 2018. Assessment of personal property. The assessor shall assess the personal property of the owner of such property at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed, the assessor shall list the same in the county where the owner resides, or in the county board of equalization; and if between different counties in different counties, by the Department of Taxation * * *.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and deliver to the assessor, upon request, a true and correct statement of all personal property owned by him, as shown in the manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which * * * he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, or in any other capacity, * * *.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full and correct statement of his personal property, he may examine him under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, he shall be liable to prosecution for perjury or for his principal according to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such value, and shall advise the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary, enter any dwelling, building, or other structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1006. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who makes a false statement of value of personal property for tax or assessment, who shall be liable to prosecution for perjury, which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1997. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How Classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross estimate or other tax shall be classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.
