DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

CASS

County, Minn.

1942.

Loren Maine, Assessor of the Town of Home Brook

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real Estate Personal Property Assessment Books for the year 1942, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

L. Chas. Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his personal property.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside in the town or district where the farm is situated, the town or district where the farm is situated, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 2028. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, including ovens, manual instruments, sewing machines, washing apparatus having a fixed axis in any city, village, town or district where the farm is situated, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2032. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed axis in any city, village, town or district where the farm is situated, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2036. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a decedent person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2044. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of the assignee or receiver of a person shall be listed and assessed at the place where the ward resides.

Sec. 2046. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of the assignee or receiver of a person shall be listed and assessed at the place where the ward resides.

Sec. 2048. Property moved between counties, town, or district in another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either county, town, or district in which it is located at the time of its removal from one state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which it is located for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 1918. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper piece of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter providing for the listing of personal property, the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, by the Department of Taxation.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list his personal property shall verify the same by a sworn statement of the value of such property, and shall file the same with the assessor of the county in which the property is located.

Sec. 2006. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full and correct statement of the value of such property, he may require the person listing the same to be examined under oath, and if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, he shall be liable to a fine of not more than $100, or to imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or to both, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 2008. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he may determine to be just, and shall file a statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any building, or building, or structure, and view the same, and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding title. Every person who makes a false statement regarding title to real estate, or who authorizes by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make any such statement, shall be liable to a fine of not more than $100, or to imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or to both, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 1993. Classification of property-Subdivision 1. How Classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other listing tax shall be classified for purposes of taxation as provided in this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed at the value of the iron ore which it is mined by underground methods and placed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1 of each year, but not later than the first day of October following, which is classified by the iron ore trade as middling, standard, or standard-bests in excess of 150 per cent, dried analysis, or standard-bests, and in accordance with coal engineering and metallurgical practice, requires concentration other than crushing or screening in order to make it ready for use.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class two, and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural implements, tools, machinery, and equipment of the family residence, shall constitute Class three and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 4. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class four, and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 6. Class 5. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class five, and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 7. Class 6. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class six, and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 8. Class 7. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class seven, and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 8. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class eight, and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 10. Class 9. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class nine, and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 11. Class 10. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class ten, and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 12. Class 11. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute Class eleven, and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Home Brook, Cass

Section 1985. Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown so stated, opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in April of each year. The county auditor, on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose, shall meet and make arrangements for the delivery of the assessment books and blanks to the assessors on or before the first Monday in May of each year. The county auditor shall receive the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury.
