DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

1940

County, Minn.,

CASS

Arthur J. Ficker

Assessor of the Town of May

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the year 1940.

Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereunto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. R. Johnson County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.
All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.
Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquiring it on that day, by or for the person acquiring it.
Sec. 1985. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:
1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this State, shall list and assess annually as personal property the stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the stock is owned by him or by the person for whom he acts in such capacity), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.
2. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this State, shall list and assess annually as personal property, in addition to that required by the foregoing sections, all real estate (including lands, tenements, and other real estate), and also any personal property which he is entitled to receive, or which is due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.
3. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or the property of a corporation, shall be listed by the trustee or the officer of the corporation having the management and control of the estate of the deceased person, by the executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person, by the assignee or receiver of the property of a person whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.
4. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper officer thereof.
5. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.
6. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, in such agent in the name of his principal, as merchant.
Sec. 1989. Where listed. Except to the contrary in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.
Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district in which the business is carried on; Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within the boundaries of this State shall be assessed in the county in which the same are situated, and such assessment shall be paid into the different funds of the county in which the same are situated.
Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside in this State, such property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the farm is situated; Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed in each of the same. The value of such farm property shall be ascertained as of the first day of May next following.
Sec. 2011. Household goods. All household goods, tools, furniture, fixtures, and other personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually used, or where the same is stored, if not used or stored in any district of the State.
Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies. All personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in this State shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district in which the same are situated.
Sec. 2013. Personal property of other companies. All personal property of other companies having a fixed situs in this State shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district in which the same are situated.
Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the decedent of an estate shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.
Sec. 2015. Personal property of guardianships. The personal property of a guardian in trust, or of any other person under guardianship, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district in which the ward resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.
Sec. 2016. Personal property of assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.
Sec. 2017. Personal property removed from one county to another. Personal property removed from one county to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either of the counties into which it is removed; but if it is removed into this State from another State between said dates, shall list and be assessed in the county, town, or district in which it appears to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year.
Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it can be listed with proper effect, the assessor shall determine the same county, town, or district in which it shall be listed, as determined by the county board of equalization; and if between districts, he shall determine the proper place of listing.

ferent counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota Auditor, or by such other person as may be determined in either case shall be a binding one if filed before the time herein provided.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor a list of the property owned by him, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, which shall be verified by him, and he shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property owned by him, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney-in-fact, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or assignee, or in any other capacity, and such statements shall be required to include in his statement any share or interest in the property of which he is required to list and return as the capital and property for taxation in this State.

Sec. 2003. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor is required to examine a list of property, he may examine such list, or for any other person, company, or corporation, his list, or any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full and true statements, or if he is found to be guilty of fraud, such person or his principal according to the best judgment and information.
Sec. 2004. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list, or in case of a list which does not show the true and correct amount and value of such property, and assess the same at a value less than the true value thereof, when required to do so, the assessor may assess the same at a value not exceeding the true value thereof.
Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to examine the list of property for taxation may, if necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, barn, outhouse, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.
Sec. 1998. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making a statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law, to be made for the purpose of assessing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement which is known to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.
Sec. 1999. Classification of Property. All real and personal property for taxation shall be classified as follows:
Class 1. All household goods, tools, furniture, fixtures, and other personal property, whether owned or unowned shall constitute class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a household, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not been used for agricultural purposes, and is located, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, in one place, or in several places, in any county, town, or district of this State, shall be assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.
Class 2. All unplatted real estate, except as otherwise provided by law, shall be assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.
Class 3. All unplatted real estate, except as otherwise provided by law, shall be assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 20. All unplatted real estate, except as otherwise provided by law, shall be assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Section 1986. Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, or and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd year shall be prepared by the assessor and the list of personal property assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year. The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the State. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive a compensation for such services the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at a rate of ten cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
