McKinley, Cass

Section 1986. Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment books, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if not, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property to be assessed shall be prepared by the assessor, and shall be filed in the county auditor's office on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year. The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meetings and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
