Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property

Section Numbers refer to Minnesota Statutes

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 273.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.02. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all personal property within this state belonging to, managed, or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney, ***.

3. The property of a minor, child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, to be listed in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 273.30. Where personal property listed. All property in this chapter provided to be listed shall be listed and assessed in the town or city, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property, where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, and implements used for the use of the family, and all personal property used by the owner, proprietors of the family, and all personal property used by the owner, proprietors or occupants of or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on * * *.

Sec. 273.30. Farm implements and stock. When the owner of livestock or other personal property, or the agent or tenant of such owner thereof, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where such farm is located, and not elsewhere, unless such town or district, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the right of way of any railroad company, or upon land owned, leased, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline companies. Subdivision 1. Personal property of pipeline companies. Every pipeline company engaged in the transportation of natural gas, gasoline or other petroleum products * * * by means of pipelines, and every company engaged in the transportation of coal, ores or other substances through pipelines for the hire of local consumers or companies engaged primarily in the business of distributing natural gas, gasoline or other petroleum products to consumers thereof to supply natural gas or other petroleum products to consumers for fuel, power or illuminating purposes and not for resale in retail, or for such purposes and for resale in retail, shall annually report under oath to the auditor of each county, the amount of such personal property assessment against each company in each district in which such property is located.

Subdivision 2. The personal property, consisting of the pipeline system, of every pipeline company, as defined in subdivision 1, and companies and others engaged in the operations or business of transporting natural gas, gasoline or other petroleum products by pipeline, shall be assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1 of each year. This subdivision shall not apply to the assessment of property transported through the pipelines nor to the lines of local consumers or companies engaged primarily in the business of distributing natural gas, gasoline or other petroleum products to consumers thereof to supply natural gas or other petroleum products to consumers for fuel, power or illuminating purposes and not for resale in retail, or for such purposes and for resale in retail. On or before the first Monday in August of each year the commissioner of taxation shall certify to the auditor of each county, the amount of such personal property assessed against each company in each district in which such property is located.

Sec. 273.37. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of every corporation shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where located, without regard to where the principal or other place of business of the company may be located.

Sec. 273.38. Electric Light and Power Companies to be assessed annually. Subdivision 1. Every corporation, company or person owning or operating a plant used in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated, without regard to where the principal or other place of business of the company is located.

Sec. 273.37. Electric light and power companies and others supplying electric power; place of listing; assessment of personal property with offices outside corporate limits of Villages, Cities, and Boroughs. Every corporation, company, association, joint stock company or companies, and other individuals and partnerships supplying electric light and power, having a fixed situs outside of the corporate limits of any village, city or borough, shall be listed and assessed in the district where situated, except as otherwise provided.

Subdivision 2. All transmission and distribution lines, and equipment, and all towers, poles, conduits, and appurtenances thereto, within the limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, and all property described in Sections 273.37 and 273.371, shall be listed with and assessed by the Commissioner of Taxation in the district where situated. The commissioner shall assess such property at the percentage of value provided by law for the assessment of personal property, and the commissioner shall certify to the auditor of each county in which such property is located the amount of the assessments made against each company and person owning such property.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his personal property shall list the property of his consignor in his hands as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state also the value of all articles purchased, collected or received by him and remaining unsold, being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, altering, repairing or rebuilding, which articles are not otherwise assessed. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufactory shall list the tools and shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, the articles and implements, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any process, except machines and tools as have been constructed for agricultural use.

Sec. 273.14. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees and receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of holding their last appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and the first day of July shall be assessed in either in the county, town or district from which he removed or in the county in which this state from whither he removed, and date shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year, as the county, town, or district from which he removed, and the property shall be assessed to the assessor that he paid for use of the several year on the property in addition state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place for listing personal property, it shall be assessed listed as the county commissioners of the several counties in this state, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization, and if between different counties, or between different districts, by the Commissioner of Taxation ***.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be sworn to. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and deliver to the assessor a full and correct statement of all personal property owned by him, and a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, and a verified statement of all personal property mentioned in this chapter which he has in his possession or under his control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for an agent or for another, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete statement of such property as required by law, with regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may examine such person, or the person in his employ according to his best judgment and information.

Section 273.65. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of personal property from any person, the assessor shall ascertain the amount or value of such property, and assess the same at such sum as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, the assessor shall furnish the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.50. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess any property shall have power, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 609.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made to any officer, board or court concerning taxes or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement which is false in matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax payable in the year 1965 shall be classified as provided by law for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class 1, and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value thereof.

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnaces that are utilized in the form produced and are not further processed shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines and implements used for the comforts of the family and all personal property actually used by the owner, proprietors or occupants of or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, including the dwelling house and the ground on which it stands not exceeding one acre, shall constitute class 2, and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "b", stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, all livestock, except as provided by class three "a", all machinery implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise not provided by class three "a" * * * and all buildings and structures not specifically classified herein, situated upon land of the State or subject and devoted or adaptable to rural or farm purposes, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 4. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class 4 and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of the full and true value thereof. Agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall be exempt from taxation.

Subdivision 6. Class 5a. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner, proprietor or occupant of the farm shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 5b. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class five and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 270.07. The commissioner of taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks included in each description of property.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.04. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $7.50 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of seven cents per mile, and each board of review member the sum of $6.00 per day and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1965 assessment by The Commissioner of Taxation
