Class 2c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) herein, which is used for the purpose of a home, shall consist of class 2c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof provided, if the true and

Sec. 2012. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall have the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2013. Where used in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same state, the amount of tax on each place shall be determined by the assessor, and the amount of tax on each place shall be divided and reassessed, provided for by class four (4) appraisal. Provided further, that the first $4,000 on full and true value of each tract of real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempted from taxation for state purposes; except that said first $4,000 full and true value shall remain subject and be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the administration of any and all state institutions incurred in carrying out the objects of this act.

For the purpose of determining subjects of all collections based on assessed valuations, and of determining tax liabilities and interest and penalties due thereon, the following classes of property shall be deemed as follows: class 1, land class 2, property shall be deemed as follows: class 3, per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Chap. 4. All numbers not included in the foregoing classes shall

Section 1986. Macon's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors or before the third Monday in April, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
