DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

1948.

County, Minn.,

County Auditor,

Assessor of the... According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the year 1948, containing a list of all Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source, and I hereby direct you to assess all Property and make return thereof to me as required by the laws of the State of Minnesota prescribing the duties of the assessor.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Minnesota Statutes 1945)

Sec. 273.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property in this state, which is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 273.01. * * * Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it. Sec. 273.22. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following: 1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list separately and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney. * * * Sec. 273.26. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property, where listed. All household goods, household furniture, household appliances, household implements, household machinery, tools, and implements, and domestic animals, and domestic birds, shall be listed at the residence, or at some other place where the same is usually kept. Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of a merchant or manufacturer, wherever situated, shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on * * *. Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of a farm is a non-resident, the personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, but is situated elsewhere, it shall be listed in the town or district, where the farm is situated. If the farm is situated in a town or district, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.31. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon a railroad, and all other personal property of a corporation, partnership or individual, operated and exclusively controlled by such corporation, partnership or individual, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where the property is situated. Sec. 273.32. Pipelines, etc. Personal property of pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting gas, oil, gasoline, or other petroleum products shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept. Sec. 273.33. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies, public utility companies, or other corporations, shall be listed and assessed as follows: (a) Personal property used in the production of electricity, or in the transmission of electric energy, shall be listed and assessed by the commissioner of public safety in the county where such property is situated. (b) Personal property used for the purpose of generating, transmitting, or distributing electric energy, shall be listed and assessed by the commissioner of public safety in the county where such property is situated. (c) Personal property used for the purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale. Sec. 273.34. Estates of decedents. Personal property of a decedent, wherever situated, shall be listed and assessed in the place of listing at the time of his death. Sec. 273.35. Personal property of guardian. Personal property of a guardian under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the minor, ward, or person under guardianship, where the ward resides. Sec. 273.36. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver, shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing of the property, or at such other place as the assignee or receiver may appoint by writing. Sec. 273.37. Property removed from one county, town, or district. Personal property removed from one county, town, or district to another, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where it is located.

Sec. 273.41. Classification of property.—Subdivision 1. How to be listed. All personal property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where it is situated, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Sec. 273.42. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, in duplicate, a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and a statement of the value of such property, and assess the same at such value as he determines to be just and correct. Sec. 273.43. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer or agent of the assessor may enter dwellings, houses, buildings, or structures, and view the same and the property therein, in making any statement, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a statement of its true and full value. If untruthful, it shall be assessed at 15 per cent of its true and full value. Sec. 273.44. Failure to obtain list. If a person required to list property for taxation fails to obtain a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, the assessor shall assess the property at the value of such property as determined by him on May 1 of the current year, and such assessment shall be final and conclusive. Sec. 273.45. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a statement of its true and full value, and is assessed at a value less than the value of such property, shall be liable to a civil penalty of not more than five dollars, and to a fine of not more than five dollars, and to a term of imprisonment of not more than thirty days.

Sec. 273.46. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a statement of its true and full value, and is assessed at a value less than the value of such property, shall be liable to a civil penalty of not more than five dollars, and to a fine of not more than five dollars, and to a term of imprisonment of not more than thirty days. Sec. 273.47. Failure to list. If a person required to list property for taxation fails to obtain a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, the assessor shall assess the property at the value of such property as determined by him on May 1 of the current year, and such assessment shall be final and conclusive. Sec. 273.48. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, in duplicate, a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and a statement of the value of such property, and assess the same at such value as he determines to be just and correct. Sec. 273.49. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer or agent of the assessor may enter dwellings, houses, buildings, or structures, and view the same and the property therein, in making any statement, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a statement of its true and full value. If untruthful, it shall be assessed at 15 per cent of its true and full value. Sec. 273.50. Failure to obtain list. If a person required to list property for taxation fails to obtain a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, the assessor shall assess the property at the value of such property as determined by him on May 1 of the current year, and such assessment shall be final and conclusive.

Sec. 273.51. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, in duplicate, a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and a statement of the value of such property, and assess the same at such value as he determines to be just and correct. Sec. 273.52. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer or agent of the assessor may enter dwellings, houses, buildings, or structures, and view the same and the property therein, in making any statement, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a statement of its true and full value. If untruthful, it shall be assessed at 15 per cent of its true and full value. Sec. 273.53. Failure to obtain list. If a person required to list property for taxation fails to obtain a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, the assessor shall assess the property at the value of such property as determined by him on May 1 of the current year, and such assessment shall be final and conclusive. Sec. 273.54. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, in duplicate, a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and a statement of the value of such property, and assess the same at such value as he determines to be just and correct. Sec. 273.55. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer or agent of the assessor may enter dwellings, houses, buildings, or structures, and view the same and the property therein, in making any statement, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a statement of its true and full value. If untruthful, it shall be assessed at 15 per cent of its true and full value.

Sec. 273.56. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, in duplicate, a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and a statement of the value of such property, and assess the same at such value as he determines to be just and correct. Sec. 273.57. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer or agent of the assessor may enter dwellings, houses, buildings, or structures, and view the same and the property therein, in making any statement, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a statement of its true and full value. If untruthful, it shall be assessed at 15 per cent of its true and full value. Sec. 273.58. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, in duplicate, a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and a statement of the value of such property, and assess the same at such value as he determines to be just and correct. Sec. 273.59. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer or agent of the assessor may enter dwellings, houses, buildings, or structures, and view the same and the property therein, in making any statement, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a statement of its true and full value. If untruthful, it shall be assessed at 15 per cent of its true and full value. Sec. 273.60. Failure to obtain list. If a person required to list property for taxation fails to obtain a list of the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, the assessor shall assess the property at the value of such property as determined by him on May 1 of the current year, and such assessment shall be final and conclusive.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the form of a list, a complete list of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated conspicuously in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the auditor. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the auditor. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the auditor.
