DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

CASS

County, Minn.

1942

Lloyd O'Connor Assessor of the Town of Wilson
According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Platited and Unplatited Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following: 1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his personal property.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies shall be listed and assessed where situated.

Sec. 2015. Personal property of decedents. The personal property of a decedent shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2016. Assignments and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The personal property of a person shall be listed and assessed in either town or district in which he is first called upon by the assessor.

Sec. 2018. Estates of decedents. The personal property of a decedent shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 1918. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place in which a piece of personal property shall be listed in this state, the assessor shall determine the place in which it is located, and if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization and assessment.

Sec. 1922. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list his personal property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of the personal property owned and assessed by him, and also a statement of the value of such property as it is assessed.

Sec. 1923. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, has not made a true and correct statement, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person refuses to be sworn to, he shall be deemed to have admitted that the property of such person or his principal is as stated in the statement.

Sec. 1924. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property as it is assessed, and the person shall sign and deliver to the assessor a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1925. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, in order to ascertain the value of such property, enter any dwelling, house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein, without being liable to any action therefor.

Sec. 1926. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who makes a false statement of the value of his personal property for taxation, or who makes a false statement of the value of such property as it is assessed, shall be deemed to have committed a crime, and shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars and not more than fifty dollars, and to imprisonment for not less than thirty days and not more than six months.

Sec. 1927. Classification of property-Subdivision 1. How Classified. All real and personal property subject to a general assessment shall be classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value.
