PERSONAL

Directions to Assessor

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Cass County, Minn.

John O'Connell Assessor of the Town of Wilson

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the said Town for the year 1931, containing a list of all lands and town lots subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws, Relating to the Listing of Personal Property

(Section Numbers refer to General Statutes 1923.)

Sec. 1997. Property subject to taxation. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, shall be taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. Personal property. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

- 1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock or joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned on interest, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property. 2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited in his order, check, or draft, and credits due from, owing by any person company or corporation. 3. The property of a minor child or infant person shall be listed by his guardian, executor or administrator. 4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; executor or administrator. 5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver. 6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof. 7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof. 8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of a merchant or manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and destined to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the tax-district wherein found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the district funds of the county or town, and the amount of the state as other taxes are paid and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the connected with stock or other personal property connected with a farm is not resident thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1925-Household Goods. All household goods and furniture including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the family, except such as is owned by the possessor, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town and district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to whether the same is situated outside of the district where the same is usually kept.

Chap. 306, Laws 1925. Personal Property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to whether the same is situated outside of the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between counties. The owner of personal property removed from one county, town, or district to another before May 1 and July 1 shall be assessed in either in which the property first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides; that he is held to make it appear to the assessor that he is held to make it appear to the assessor the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if the person assessed shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, the place in which mission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall verify and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, partner, receiver, receiver, accounting officer, no person shall be responsible for any statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation tion, has not made a full, fair, and complete return, he shall be liable to such person under oath in regard to the same; and if the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property thereon.

Sec. 2036. False statement regarding statement, oral or written, which is required of the assessor, or of any person who is required to make a return, or of any person who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which the iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified in one of the classes (2), (3) or (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of a family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal or domestic purposes of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3.
